10 of the tastiest green juices ever

Transform your Health & Energy!

Simple Recipes to Supercharge Health

A green juice a day is one of the most powerful gifts you can give your body. Nutritious fruits & veggies give lasting energy and focus, help fight against inflammation, and nourish your immunity. That means a stronger, healthier you.

But if you've ever had a bad-tasting juice, or got tired of how much time it takes to prep and clean up after making a smoothie from scratch, you're in the right place.

Inside are my top 10 recipes for the tastiest green juices to transform your health and energy. And you can make each one in about 3 minutes or less, so no excuses.

What's my secret? It's a shortcut called Super Green Juice. Hidden inside each smoothie is a scoop of concentrated organic superfoods that take every recipe up several notches on the healthy scale. Those 44 organic superfoods are already conveniently prepped in a powder so all you have to is add a scoop.

Start mixing, blending and savoring your way to good health in just 3 minutes a day.

Dark Chocolate Almond Smoothie

This velvety chocolate smoothie is a real treat that also comes with a trick. Hidden inside are all the healthy superfoods you need for energy and vitality. So if green drinks are not your thing, this one's for you because all you'll taste is delicious dark chocolate.

The Good Inside:

1 cup (8 oz.) almond milk

1 ripe banana

1 tbsp (tablespoon) organic cocoa powder

1 tbsp almond butter or peanut butter

2 dates (pitted and chopped)

A few ice cubes

1 scoop organic Super Green Juice powder

Put it together:

Blend all ingredients and enjoy!

For added texture in your smoothie, add a few whole almonds and 2 squares of organic 70% dark chocolate. For an extra thick smoothie, try chopping and freezing the banana ahead of time.

Quick Tip

To save even more time, replace almond milk, cocoa and dates with chocolate almond milk.

Tea: anti-inflammatory polyphenols

Pineapple: vitamins, bromelain for digestion

Ginger: soothes digestion, antioxidant

Pineapple Chai Smoothie

Slightly sweet and a touch spicy, this pineapple chai smoothie is full of inflammation-fighting foods. If you ever find yourself with digestive distress this blend of antioxidants, enzymes, and probiotics will help calm things down and have you feeling like new.

The Good Inside:

1 cup (8 oz.) organic Chai tea

1 cup fresh or frozen pineapple

¼ teaspoon fresh ginger (or to taste)

Few ice cubes (if using fresh fruit)

1 scoop organic Super Green Juice powder

Put it together:

Blend all ingredients well. Enjoy!

Quick Tip

If you don't have chai tea bags you can buy chai tea concentrate and make with ½ cup concentrate and ½ cup of water. No fresh ginger? You can buy it in a tube and use as needed.

Pomegranate: antioxidants for heart health

Coconut Water: hydrating electrolytes

Berries: vitamin C, fiber, antioxidants

Banana: fiber, potassium

Super Green Juice has 44 organic superfoods, probiotics, vitamins, minerals, enzymes, fiber & calcium in every scoop!

Pomegranate Power Smoothie

This power smoothie is perfect for sharing (makes 2) or you can stash one in the freezer to savor a healthy frozen treat for later. The pomegranate makes the flavors pop, and the organic greens powder gives you a shortcut to 44 superfoods in one simple step.

The Good Inside:

1 cup (8 oz.) pomegranate juice

1 cup organic coconut water

$\frac{3}{4}$ cup frozen organic mixed berries

1 ripe banana

2 scoops organic Super Green Juice powder

2-3 fresh mint leaves

Put it together:

- Mix the pomegranate juice and frozen berries and set aside.
- Separately, blend the banana, coconut water, Super Green Juice, and fresh mint leaves.
- First, pour the green blend into glasses. Then slowly pour the pomegranate berry mixture into the middle of each glass.
- Garnish with fresh mint leaves and enjoy!

Green Tea: heart-healthy antioxidants

Red Grapes: resveratrol

Mint: soothes digestion

Super Green Juice has 44 organic superfoods, probiotics, vitamins, minerals, enzymes, fiber & calcium in every scoop!

Iced Super Green Tea

Refreshingly cool with a hint of natural sweetness, this green juice is a delightful twist on iced tea. While you chill out with this tasty tea, you'll also alkalize and energize your body with healthy superfoods.

The Good Inside:

1 cup (8 oz.) unsweetened organic green tea

$\frac{3}{4}$ cup frozen organic grapes (green or red)

2-3 mint leaves (or to your taste)

1 tsp organic raw honey

1 scoop Super Green Juice

Put it together:

Blend all ingredients until smooth. Garnish with fresh mint and enjoy!

Quick Tip

Summer is organic grape season. It's short so stock up, wash and freeze them for a tasty, sweet snack. And opt for organic, since tea and grapes are among the foods most heavily sprayed by toxic pesticides.

Banana: fiber, potassium

Coconut: energizing MCTs

Cocoa: resveratrol, heart-healthy flavanols

Raw Honey: antioxidants, enzymes

Dates: vitamin A, minerals

Super Green Juice has 44 organic superfoods, probiotics, vitamins, minerals, enzymes, fiber & calcium in every scoop!

Chocolate Banana Popsicles

This decadent dark chocolate treat is so rich and creamy you won't believe it is also non-dairy, full of superfoods, and only 180 calories a pop. They satisfy your sweet tooth while nourishing with superfoods!

The Good Inside (makes 6):

6 Popsicle Molds and Sticks

3 ripe bananas

1 can of organic coconut milk (lite)

1 tbsp organic coconut oil

2 tbsp of raw, organic honey

2 tbsp unsweetened organic cocoa powder

6 dates, pitted and chopped

Dash of organic vanilla extract

1 scoop organic Super Green Juice powder

Put it together:

- Blend 2 bananas, coconut milk, dates, honey, coconut oil and a dash of vanilla together. Set aside ½ cup of this mixture.
- To the main liquid, add a scoop of Super Green Juice, 2 tablespoons of cocoa powder and blend well.
- Fill up the Popsicle molds about ⅓ with the chocolate mixture.
- Chop the third banana into small slices, and add it to the molds along with the mixture you had set aside.
- Top up all the molds with the remainder of the chocolate mixture, leaving a little room for the popsicles to expand during freezing.
- Freeze and enjoy!

Strawberry Watermelon Popsicles

Deliciously refreshing, these strawberry watermelon popsicles are so yummy, kids (and grown-ups) will keep asking for more. Each refreshing popsicle comes in at only about 60 calories, and with 44 organic superfoods inside you'll never have to say no.

The Good Inside (makes 6):

6 Popsicle Molds and Sticks

2 cups (16 oz.) fresh chopped seedless watermelon

2 or 3 fresh mint leaves

1 cup (8 oz.) chopped organic strawberries

Juice of 1 lime

2 tablespoons raw, unfiltered honey

1 scoop organic Super Green Juice powder

Put it together:

- Set aside ¼ cup of strawberries and drizzle with a little warmed honey and a touch of lime juice.
- Blend watermelon, ¾ cup of strawberries, mint leaves, remainder of honey, and lime juice until liquid. Set aside ½ cup.
- Take main liquid, add a scoop of organic Super Green Juice and blend well.
- Drop a few of the strawberries you set aside into each of your 6 Popsicle molds. Keep some to add at the end.
- Pour the ½ cup of pink liquid you saved equally into the 6 molds.
- Slowly pour the main Super Green Juice mixture into the 6 molds, then top off with the remainder of the chopped strawberries.
- Freeze and enjoy!
